Received your stimulus check or tax refund?

Navigating COVID-19

We all have different situations and goals when making financial decisions. Keeping that in mind, here are some

TIPS ON WHAT YOU CAN DO:

1. Save as much of the money as you can since we don't know how long this crisis will last.
2. Don't pay down large chunks of debt with these funds. Pay the minimum for the next few months, and then pay down more if the money is not needed to pay essential bills.
3. Split your bills into essential and nonessential until the crisis is done, and pay first what is essential.
4. Use stimulus funds to help cover your rent (example: If you have a loss of income of $500 per month then $1,200 could help cover nearly 2.5 months). If these funds are not enough to cover your rent, make sure to call your landlord and attempt to set up a payment plan until the crisis is over. Call Tabor to help assist with establishing a spending and saving plan during the crisis and beyond. Also we may be able to help in communicating and setting up a payment plan with your landlord.
5. Call your mortgage company and attempt to set up a payment plan until the crisis is over. Call Tabor to help assist with establishing a spending and saving plan during the crisis and beyond. Also we may be able to help in communicating and setting up a payment plan with your mortgage company.
6. Call all utilities and make sure you have the best deal for the services you need. Review and reduce anything you can to save money right now. Sometimes they will have payment plans or even assistance programs depending on your situation.
7. Call your loans and credit card companies to see if they have any special programs to help reduce costs during the crisis. This could include student loans, personal loans, credit cards, store cards, car loans, and any other loans that you may have at the moment.
8. Don't start any new loans unless they are essential. If you need a new car to get to work or need to refinance your house for a lower payment, then do that as needed. Try to avoid these actions until the crisis is over and you are sure that your income is stable.
9. Treat yourself. This may seem like a bad idea to many, but allow yourself a little something like ordering out from your favorite restaurant for you and your family or buy something that could make your life easier like hair clippers (for the dog, kids, your spouse). Keep it under 10% of the amount you receive. If you get a $2400 check then you can spend up to $240.
10. Lastly, think about giving. Everyone won't be able to do this, but if you are able use the same rule as in #9 on this list. Keep it to 10% or less as a general rule to make a difference in someone else's life.

Don't forget to do your taxes. There are many ways to do your taxes online for little to no cost. Tax filing has been extended to July 15, but why wait. If you don't receive any type of direct deposit from the federal government, you may want to go to the IRS website to check on your stimulus check.

Concerned About Paying Loans And Bills?

Navigating COVID-19

If you are struggling to pay your mortgage, loans, and bills due to Covid-19, please refer to the information below.

The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) and other financial regulators have encouraged financial institutions to work with their customers to meet the needs of their communities. Please follow the link below for further information.

<https://www.consumerfinance.gov/about-us/blog/protect-yourself-financially-from-impact-of-coronavirus/>

WHAT YOU SHOULD DO

Contact your lenders and loan services as soon as possible if you are having trouble paying your bills or loans on time. There may be several options available to you, especially if you reach out early.

- Wait time maybe significantly higher than usual, so start this process early.
- Lenders and loan servicers contact information should be on your monthly statement
- Most lenders and loan servicers are listing guidance and information on their websites.
- If your mortgage is already in arrears, please speak to your financial institution about all options available to you such as forbearance or loan modifications.

WHEN CONTACTING YOUR LENDERS, BE PREPARED TO EXPLAIN

- Your situation
- How much you can afford to pay
- When you are likely to be able to restart regular payments
- In the case of mortgages, be prepared to discuss your income, expenses and assets

BE AWARE OF SCAMMERS

Scammers look for opportunities to take advantage of individuals, especially during emergencies or natural disasters. Be cautious of phone calls, emails, texts, or social media posts in regard to your finances. Make sure that you are working with legitimate organizations. If you have questions, please reach out to us at LHOP or Tabor.

Be Proactive - Ask For Help!

Navigating COVID-19

One misconception that many people hold is to not contact your landlord, lender, bank, credit union, credit card company, utility company, phone company, etc., when you don't have money to pay them.

You should always call these creditors before you actually have a problem to ask what services and support may be available. Many have programs to help you when you are experiencing a hardship or crisis. It usually puts you in a better situation by not ruining your credit, having fees waived, and possibly reducing interest. In a large crisis, many creditors want to give back to customers and the community in a lot of ways and are waiting for customers to call them and let them know how they can help. Many of these programs need to be requested while you are in the midst of the crisis, not months after when you are so deep in a hole that no program will be enough to get you back to normal circumstances. Be Proactive, ask for Help!

Halt On Foreclosures & Evictions

The federal eviction moratorium took effect on March 27, 2020 and extends for 120 days.

Many, but not all landlords and mortgage companies are now not allowed to start the legal process of removing you from your home. For additional details, please refer to the link below. You should continue to pay your rent or mortgage during this time. Many people will get behind for various reasons. If do get behind on payment, you must be proactive in talking with your creditors. If you wait months before asking for help, there will be no programs to assist paying back a large arrearage, and you can lose your housing. Landlord and Mortgage companies would rather help you along the way with different services that will allow you to get through this crisis. Also, you need to ask for advice from places like Tabor Community Services and Lancaster Housing and Opportunity Partnership to find out your rights in the process and to make sure that you are empowered with knowledge and tools so that you can do what is best for your unique situation.

Student Loan Relief

Navigating COVID-19

A CURRENT SUMMARY OF STUDENT LOAN INFORMATION

Federal student loan borrowers are automatically being placed in an administrative forbearance until September 30, 2020. This allows borrowers to temporarily stop making payments. Any payments made between March 13, 2020 and September 30, 2020 can be refunded by your loan servicer.

Federal Student loan interest rates will be 0% for 6 months on qualifying loans.

Which loans are covered by these changes?

All loans owned by the U.S. Department of Education (ED) will have interest waived. That includes Direct Loans, as well as Federal Perkins Loans and Federal Family Education Loan (FFEL) Program loans held by ED. Please note that some FFEL Program loans are owned by commercial lenders, and some Perkins Loans are held by the institution you attended. These loans are not eligible for this benefit at this time.

More information can be found here:

<https://studentaid.gov/announcements-events/coronavirus>

You may still make voluntary payments at ANY time.

PRIVATE LOAN RELIEF

Renters - Proactive Communication

Navigating COVID-19

Many people are unable to work right now which might make it difficult to pay April's rent. While that can be a hard conversation to have, reach out to your landlord now, rather than waiting so that you can work toward a solution together.

HERE ARE SOME TIPS:

- Communicate as soon as possible
- Communicate in writing (so that you have a record of your agreement)
- Communicate when you are feeling calm. This is hard on everyone, and it is best if we can keep the conversation polite.

We have put together some suggested ways to start the conversation. If this doesn't feel like something that you can do, please let us know. We can reach out on your behalf. We recommend that you take the first step, because landlords often respect when tenants take the responsibility to communicate with them.

If you do end up setting up a payment arrangement, please let us know so that we can support you and keep in touch with your landlord. Let us know if you have any questions or concerns.

SAMPLE MESSAGES TO LANDLORDS

If you can pay partial rent

Hi, (landlord's name), as you probably know due to COVID-19, I am currently off work right now because (my work is closed, my child's school is closed, etc.). I wanted to communicate with you about my employment status because I know April's rent will be due soon. Would you be willing to work with me and to accept ($X) to cover this month's rent? I would like to set up a payment plan to cover the remaining rent to ensure your rental income. I appreciate your flexibility and understanding during these stressful times.

If you can pay no rent this month

Hi, (landlord's name), as you may know, I am currently not working due to (my work is closed, my child's school is closed, etc.). Unfortunately, due to loss of income, I will not be able to pay April's rent on time. I would like to put a payment plan into place so I can start repaying once I have income again. I am working on a plan to get income (applying for unemployment, looking for a new job, exploring childcare options, etc.). Please let me know how we can work together during this time to ensure your rental income and my housing stability. I appreciate your patience during this challenging time.

Landlords - Sample Letter to Tenants

Navigating COVID-19

Dear Tenant,

In the recent weeks our lives have dramatically changed due to the COVID-19 Pandemic and the social distancing practices promoted by the state of Pennsylvania and the Center for Disease Control. We understand this quarantine may be affecting your wages and your ability to pay your monthly expenses, including your rent. If there are changes to your ability to pay rent, please communicate that to us as soon as possible. This communication will allow us to have a discussion about payments prior to falling behind and potentially set up a payment plan. It is our intent to work with you during these uncertain times. It is recommended you follow this practice and communicate with utilities and loan holders.

If your income has changed, it is recommended you file for Unemployment Compensation immediately. A copy of your unemployment filing may be requested if setting up a payment plan. We recommend you reach out to United Way through the 2-1-1 portal if additional resources such as food are needed.

- Apply for unemployment: www.uc.pa.gov/Pages/covid19.aspx?fbclid=IwAR2wT7m-7dzgIklsBPn29JgYLZZSbEVP6HrlcwMCC6NFi8Sx3YVHTPYBFjz0

If you have further questions or concerns, please feel free to reach out to me.

Thank you!

Supporting Individuals with Mental Health Conditions

Navigating COVID-19

Individuals with mental health conditions are at a greater risk to experience worsening symptoms during a crisis such as the coronavirus. It is important to keep an eye on those we care about during this time and look out for these symptoms.

THERE ARE SOME THINGS WE CAN DO TO HELP SUPPORT THEM DURING THIS TIME:

- Use clear communication with your loved ones regarding the impacts of Covid-19 and how to reduce the risk of infection. Remind them to use recommended hygiene practices and appropriate social distancing. They may need reminders.
- Encourage them to use trustworthy sites and streams of information to learn more about Covid-19. There is a lot of misinformation out there.
- Maintain regular contact with your loved ones during this time since individuals with mental health conditions naturally isolate. They may need reminders that they are not alone.
- Anxiety can lead to panic attacks. Encourage various forms of relaxation, meditation, exercise and/or prayer to alleviate anxiety.
- Make sure they have enough medication to last for a period of time or that medication delivery options are in place.
- Help them to develop a regular routine for this time.
- Encourage other forms of socialization through social media and telephone conversations.
- If your loved one attends regular therapy sessions, find out if they can do the sessions over the phone.

If necessary, reach out to supports for Mental Health crisis or concerns via phone or online. Here are a few of resources for this:
